

Sand Hill Project

The construction phase of the project consists of the installation, site work, start-up and commissioning of two (2) General Electric LM-6000 gas turbine generators (nominal 100-MW) and associated auxiliary equipment at the existing Sand Hill Energy Center site. The work includes the interface/modification of existing equipment and systems to accept the new generating units and auxiliary equipment